

BASKET RANGE
WINE
ADELAIDE HILLS

Wine History Talk, Tour & Tasting

-4 EVENTS DURING HISTORY WEEK: MAY 22-23 AND MAY 29-30 FROM 2 - 4 PM -

Tour the historic Marble Hill Ruins and Museum.

Taste Basket Range Wines and cheeses from artisan Adelaide Hills companies (included in the price).

Talk about old wine books and hear the history of wine making in the Adelaide Hills at the following lectures:

Saturday 22nd May - Dr Geoffrey Bishop - Horticulturist, wine history author & incoming president of the Historical Society of SA

- "The finest light wines? - Wine making in the Adelaide Hills 1839 to 1939"

Sunday 23rd May - Phillip Broderick - Winemaker, lawyer & Chair of The History Trust SA

- "30 years of wine growing in the back blocks of Basket Range"

Saturday 29th May - Valmai Hankel - Wine historian, Rare Books specialist, adventurer & President of the Friends of the State Library of SA

- "You was drunk when you died!" - a talk about old wine books.

Sunday 30th May - James Smith - Wine historian & author of "Bubbles Bottles & Colonial Bastards, a history of sparkling wine making in Australia".

- "Sparkling wine making in early South Australia"

Tickets Only $20 per head. Numbers limited, so book early!

Book and pay online through: mary@basketrangewine.com.au
($5 Discount for Friends Members, please call: 8207 7255)

Books and wine available for purchase on the day

Directions to Marble Hill can be found in the Adelaide Street Directory, UBD Map 122
Allow 30 minutes from the City. Parking available on site.

www.marblehill.com.au

www.slsa.gov.au

www.basketrangewine.com.au

STATE
LIBRARY
South Australia
Friends

STATE
LIBRARY
South Australia
Foundation

